

Miracle Job

What was the situation?

September 11, 2015, I was relieved of the position of Director of Financial Aid after being hired six months earlier and worked 14 years at another higher education institution holding the same title.

What did you do?

In this season of unemployment, I intentionally sought God for comfort and answers with prayer partners and my church community. In December 2015, I became a steady listener of the Winners Call. Each call, I was impressed with the direct godly instructions given by Min. Hazelle.

As instructed, I wrote, posted & meditated on (still, work in progress) scriptures, read some of the recommended books and fasted. During discouraging moments, I would read Jeremiah 29:11, Ephesians 1:17-18, and Romans 12:12 as reminders of God's plan and promise. Each time a rejection appeared to what I believed to be the ideal job; I quickly recalled what Journalist Elizabeth Vargas said during her televised testimonial about her battle with alcoholism, "God says three things: Yes, Not yet, I have something better." In November 2016, Hazelle introduced to the callers "Supernatural Intercessory Prayer Guidelines." These guidelines were my "aha moment." The spirit of burden and frustration lifted. I was empowered! No longer feeling the burden to pray my same "me" prayers. I was relieved & elated to pray for the Kingdom, my church, Winners Call and a host of others.

What did God do?

January 17, 2017, God blessed me with an offer letter for a part-time position at Apple, Inc. Apple was not on my radar as a potential employer. As a trained financial aid counselor, I only sought employment with higher education institutions. November 2016, one of my many visits to the Apple Store, chatting about life with one of the employees, she shared that I should apply for a position. My immediate response was I don't have the high-level skills... She dismissed my reply and encouraged me to pursue. I did as she instructed with an "I have nothing to lose" attitude.

To God be the glory I start February 3, 2017.

Desired Position

2/2017

What was the situation? I was in a season of unemployment since September 2015.

What did you do? As a listener to the Winners Call, I read the 2017 Intercessory Prayer Guidelines and participated in the 21-day prayer and fasting. I felt lead to meditate and pray on the prayer point guideline, "Praying for Pastors and Church Leaders." These prayers freed me of anxiety and fed my joy.

In addition, The Winners' Call, Rev. Hazelle encouraged callers to listen to Domi Radio's Friday night service. During this time, I was interviewing with a college for my desired position.

What did God do? On January 27, 2017 two days before ending the 21-days, at 9am, I got a call from the College who interviewed me a few weeks prior. Instead of answering the call, I went to pray, after 2 hours I returned the College's call. During the call I made my final salary offer, standing on the scripture - "The Lord is my light and my salvation who shall I fear?" The College's Vice President, heard my final offer and replied saying, "I can't guarantee I will get back to you today." It was a little after 3pm when the call ended. At 5pm I tuned into Domi Radio's feet washing service. As I was engaging in the service, it got interrupted because I was using my phone to stream the service to my TV for better sound quality. It was the College calling at 5:29pm, saying they have accepted my offer!

To God be the glory I start February 23, 2017.
